THIS MATTER is before the undersigned pursuant to letters filed by Defendant (#58) (#59) & (#60) addressed to either United States District Judge Martin Reidinger or to this Court concerning his conditions of detention. At the call of this matter on for hearing, it appeared that Defendant was present with his counsel Brian D. Gulden and the Government was present through AUSA David Thorneloe. Mr. Gulden advised the Court that he had met with Defendant and at the present time, he had resolved the questions of Defendant as contained in the letters and further, at the present time Mr. Gulden was not prepared to request a detention hearing for Defendant. As a result, the undersigned finds that the issues raised by the letters are resolved and are now moot.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that the relief requested by the Defendant in documents (#58) (#59) & (#60) have been resolved and the issues raised therein are now MOOT and are DENIED.
